

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NATIONAL BANK ACT OF 1864.

AN ACT to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States Bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof. Approved, June 3, 1864.

A Bureau of Currency shall be established. The Officers shall give bonds; and shall not be interested in any National Banks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be established in the Treasury Department a separate bureau, which shall be charged with the execution of this and all other laws that may be passed by Congress respecting the issue and regulation of a national currency secured by United States bonds. The chief officer of the said bureau shall be denominated the Comptroller of the Currency, and shall be under the general direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. He shall be appointed by the President, on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold his office for the term of five years unless sooner removed by the President, upon reasons to be communicated by him to the Senate; he shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars; he shall have a competent deputy, appointed by the Secretary, whose salary shall be two thousand five hundred dollars, and who shall possess the power and perform the duties attached by law to the office of Comptroller during a vacancy in such office and during his absence or inability; he shall employ, from time to time, the necessary clerks to discharge such duties as he shall direct, which clerks shall be appointed and classified by the Secretary of the Treasury in the manner now provided by law. Within fifteen days from the time of notice of his appointment the Comptroller shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the United States; and he shall give to the United States a bond in the penalty of one hundred thousand dollars, with not less than two responsible sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. The Deputy Comptroller so appointed shall also take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and shall give a like bond in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars. The Comptroller and Deputy Comptroller shall not, either directly or indirectly, be interested in any Association issuing national currency under the provisions of this Act.

Seal of Office. Instruments under such seal evidence in Courts.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall devise a seal, with suitable inscriptions, for his office, a description of which, with a certificate of approval by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State with an impression thereof, which shall thereupon become the seal of office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the same may be renewed when necessary. Every certificate, assignment, and conveyance executed by the Comptroller, in pursuance of any authority conferred on him by law, and sealed with his seal of office, shall be received in evidence in all places and courts whatsoever; and all copies of papers in the office of the Comptroller, certified by him and authenticated by the said seal, shall in all cases be evidence equally and in like manner as the original. An impression of such seal directly on the paper shall be as valid as if made on wax or wafer.

Rooms, with fire-proof vaults, shall be assigned to the Comptroller.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be assigned to the Comptroller of the Currency by the Secretary of the Treasury suitable rooms in the Treasury building for conducting the business of the Currency Bureau, in which shall be safe and secure fire-proof vaults, in which it shall be the duty of the Comptroller to deposit and safely keep all the plates, not necessarily in the possession of engravers or printers, and other valuable things belonging to his department; and the Comptroller shall from time to time furnish the necessary furniture, stationery, fuel, lights, and other proper conveniences for the transaction of the said business.

Definition of term "United States Bonds."

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the term "United States bonds," as used in this act, shall be construed to mean all registered bonds now issued, or that may hereafter be issued, on the faith of the United States by the Secretary of the Treasury in pursuance of law.

Associations for banking purposes authorized. Articles of association; what to contain.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That Associations for carrying on the business of banking may be formed by any number of persons, not less in any case than five, who shall enter into articles of association, which shall specify in general terms the object for which the Association is formed, and may contain any other provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, which the Association may see fit to adopt for the regulation of the business of the Association and the conduct of its affairs, which said articles shall be signed by the persons uniting to form the Association, and a copy of them forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency, to be filed and preserved in his office.

Organization certificate required ; what it shall specify.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the persons uniting to form such an Association shall, under their hands, make an organization certificate, which shall specify—

First. The name assumed by such Association, which name shall be subject to the approval of the Comptroller.

Second. The place where its operations of discount and deposit are to be carried on, designating the State, Territory, or District, and also the particular county and city, town or village.

Third. The amount of its capital stock, and the number of shares into which the same shall be divided.

Fourth. The names and places of residence of the shareholders, and the number of shares held by each of them.

Fifth. A declaration that said certificate is made to enable such persons to avail themselves of the advantages of this Act.

The said certificate shall be acknowledged before a judge of some court of record or a notary public, and such certificate, with the acknowledgment thereof authenticated by the seal of such court or notary, shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, who shall record and carefully preserve the same in his office. Copies of such certificate, duly certified by the Comptroller, and authenticated by his seal of office, shall be legal and sufficient evidence in all courts and places within the United States, or the jurisdiction of the government thereof, of the existence of such association, and of every other matter or thing which could be proved by the production of the original certificate.

Capital of Associations in no place to be less than fifty thousand dollars.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That no Association shall be organized under this Act with a less capital than one hundred thousand dollars, nor, in a city whose population exceeds fifty thousand persons, with a less capital than two hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That banks with a capital of not less than fifty thousand dollars may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be organized in any place the population of which does not exceed six thousand inhabitants.

Corporate powers of Associations.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That every Association, formed pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall, from the date of the execution of its organization certificate, be a body corporate, but shall transact no business except such as may be incidental to its organization and necessarily preliminary, until authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency to commence the business of banking. Such Association shall have power to adopt a corporate seal, and shall have succession by the name designated in its organization certificate, for the period of twenty years from its organization, unless sooner dissolved according to the provisions of its articles of association, or by the act of its shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock, or unless the franchise shall be forfeited by a violation of this Act; by such name it may make contracts, sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law and equity, as fully as natural persons; it may elect or appoint directors, and by its board of directors appoint a president, vice-president, cashier, and other officers, define their duties, require bonds of them and fix the penalty thereof, dismiss said officers or any of them at pleasure, and appoint others to fill their places, and exercise under this act all such incidental powers as shall be necessary to carry on the business of banking by discounting and negotiating promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, and other evidences of debt; by receiving deposits; by buying and selling exchange, coin and bullion; by loaning money on personal security; by obtaining, issuing and circulating notes according to the provisions of this Act; and its board of directors shall also have power to define and regulate by by-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the manner in which its stock shall be transferred, its directors elected or appointed, its officers appointed, its property transferred, its general business conducted, and all the privileges granted by this Act to Associations organized under it shall be exercised and enjoyed; and its usual business shall be transacted at an office or banking-house located in the place specified in its organization certificate.

Directors and their qualifications.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the affairs of every Association shall be managed by not less than five directors, one of whom shall be the president. Every director shall, during his whole term of service, be a citizen of the United States; and at least three-fourths of the directors shall have resided in the State, Territory or district in which such Association is located one year next preceding their election as directors, and be residents of the same during their continuance in office. Each director shall own, in his own right, at least ten shares of the capital stock of the Association of which he is a director. Each director, when appointed or elected, shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such Association, and will not knowingly violate, or willingly permit to be violated, any of the provisions of this Act, and that he is the bona fide owner, in his own right, of the number of shares of stock required by this Act, subscribed by him, or standing in his name on the books of the Association, and that the same is not hypothecated, or in any way pledged, as security for any loan or debt; which oath, subscribed by himself, and certified by the officer before whom it is taken, shall be immediately transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, and by him filed and preserved in his office.

Directors to be elected annually, in January. Vacancies ; how filled.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the directors of any Association first elected or appointed shall hold their places until their successors shall be elected and qualified. All subsequent elections shall be held annually on such day in the month of January as may be specified in the articles of association ; and the directors so elected shall hold their places for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified. But any director, ceasing to be the owner of the requisite amount of stock, or having in any other manner become disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place. Any vacancy in the board shall be filled by appointment by the remaining directors, and any director so appointed shall hold his place until the next election. If from any cause an election of directors shall not be made at the time appointed, the Association shall not for that cause be dissolved, but an election may be held on any subsequent day, thirty days notice thereof in all cases having been given in a newspaper published in the city, town or county in which the Association is located ; and if no newspaper is published in such city, town or county, such notice shall be published in a newspaper published nearest thereto. If the articles of association do not fix the day on which the election shall be held, or if the election should not be held on the day fixed, the day for the election shall be designated by the board of directors in their by-laws, or otherwise : Provided, That if the directors fail to fix the day, as aforesaid, shareholders representing two-thirds of the shares may.

Each Shareholder entitled to one vote ; may vote by proxies. No Officer shall act as proxy.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That in all elections of directors, and in deciding all questions at meetings of shareholders, each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote on each share of stock held by him. Shareholders may vote by proxies duly authorized in writing ; but no officer, clerk, teller, or book-keeper of such Association shall act as proxy ; and no shareholder whose liability is past due and unpaid shall be allowed to vote.

Shares one hundred dollars each. Liability of Shareholders.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the capital stock of any Association formed under this Act shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the Association in such manner as may be prescribed in the by-laws or articles of association ; and every person becoming a shareholder by such transfer shall, in proportion to his shares, succeed to all the rights and liabilities of the prior holder of such shares, and no change shall be made in the articles of association by which the rights, remedies, or security of the existing creditors of the Association shall be impaired. The shareholders of each Association formed under the provisions of this Act, and of each existing bank or Banking Association that may accept the provisions of this Act, shall be held individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such Association to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares; except that shareholders of any Banking Association now existing under State laws, having not less than five millions of dollars of capital actually paid in, and a surplus of twenty per centum on hand, both to be determined by the Comptroller of the Currency, shall be liable only to the amount invested in their shares; and such surplus of twenty per centum shall be kept undiminished, and be in addition to the surplus provided for in this Act; and if at any time there shall be a deficiency in said surplus of twenty per centum, the said Banking Association shall not pay any dividends to its shareholders until such deficiency shall be made good; and in case of such deficiency, the Comptroller of the Currency may compel said Banking Association to close its business and wind up its affairs under the provisions of this Act. And the Comptroller shall have authority to withhold from an Association his certificate authorizing the commencement of business, whenever he shall have reason to suppose that the shareholders thereof have formed the same for any other than the legitimate objects contemplated by this Act.

How an Association may increase or reduce its capital.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Association formed under this Act, by its articles of association, to provide for an increase of its capital from time to time as may be deemed expedient, subject to the limitations of this Act: Provided, That the maximum of such increase in the articles of Association shall be determined by the Comptroller of the Currency; and no increase of capital shall be valid until the whole amount of such increase shall be paid in, and notice thereof shall have been transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, and his certificate obtained specifying the amount of such increase of capital stock, with his approval thereof, and that it has been duly paid in as part of the capital of such Association. And every Association shall have power, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of its capital stock, to reduce the capital of such Association to any sum not below the amount required by this Act, in the formation of Associations: Provided, That by no such reduction shall its capital be brought below the amount required by this Act for its outstanding circulation, nor shall any such reduction be made until the amount of the proposed reduction has been reported to the Comptroller of the Currency and his approval thereof obtained.

Fifty per cent. of capital required before commencement of business.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That at least fifty per centum of the capital stock of every Association shall be paid in before it shall be authorized to commence business; and the remainder of the capital stock of such Association shall be paid in installments of at least ten per centum each on the whole amount of the capital as frequently as one installment at the end of each succeeding month from the time it shall be authorized by the Comptroller to commence business; and the payment of each installment shall be certified to the Comptroller, under oath, by the president or cashier of the Association.

Directors may sell stock of delinquent shareholders.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That if any shareholder, or his assignee, shall fail to pay any installment on the stock when the same is required by the foregoing section to be paid, the directors of such Association may sell the stock of such delinquent shareholder, at public auction, having given three weeks previous notice thereof in a newspaper published and of general circulation in the city or county where the Association is located, and if no newspaper is published in said city or county, then in a newspaper published nearest thereto, to any person who will pay the highest price therefor, and not less than the amount then due thereon, with the expenses of advertisement and sale; and the excess, if any, shall be paid to the delinquent shareholder. If no bidder can be found who will pay for such stock the amount due thereon to the Association, and the cost of advertisement and sale, the amount previously paid shall be forfeited to the Association, and such stock shall be sold as the directors may order, within six months from the time of such forfeiture, and if not sold it shall be canceled and deducted from the capital stock of the Association; and if such cancellation and reduction shall reduce the capital of the Association below the minimum of capital required by this Act, the capital stock shall, within thirty days from the date of such cancellation, be increased to the requirements of the Act; in default of which a receiver may be appointed to close up the business of the Association according to the provisions of the fiftieth section of this Act.

Deposit of United States Bonds with the Treasurer of the United States, required of each association.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That every Association, after having complied with the provisions of this Act preliminary to the commencement of banking business under its provisions, and before it shall be authorized to commence business, shall transfer and deliver to the Treasurer of the United States, any United States registered bonds bearing interest to an amount not less than thirty thousand dollars nor less than one-third of the capital stock paid in, which bonds shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States and by him safely kept in his office until the same shall be otherwise disposed of, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to receive and cancel any United States coupon bonds, and to issue in lieu thereof registered bonds of like amount, bearing a like rate of interest, and having the same time to run; and the deposit of bonds shall be, by every Association, increased as its capital may be paid up or increased, so that every Association shall at all times have on deposit with the Treasurer registered United States bonds to the amount of at least one-third of its capital stock actually paid in: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prevent an Association that may desire to reduce its capital or to close up its business and dissolve its organization from taking up its bonds upon returning to the Comptroller its circulating notes in the proportion hereinafter named in this Act, nor from taking up any excess of bonds, beyond one-third of its capital stock and upon which no circulating notes have been delivered.

Comptroller shall examine condition of association before granting certificate.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That whenever a certificate shall have been transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, as provided in this Act, and the Association transmitting the same shall notify the Comptroller that at least fifty per centum of its capital stock has been paid in as aforesaid, and that such Association has complied with all the provisions of this Act as required to be complied with before such Association shall be authorized to commence the business of banking, the Comptroller shall examine into the condition of such Association, ascertain especially the amount of money paid in on account of its capital, the name and place of residence of each of the directors of such Association, and the amount of the capital stock of which each is the bona fide owner, and generally whether such Association has complied with all the requirements of this Act to entitle it to engage in the business of banking; and shall cause to be made, and attested by the oaths of a majority of the directors and by the president or cashier of such Association, a statement of all the facts necessary to enable the Comptroller to determine whether such Association is lawfully entitled to commence the business of banking under this Act.

If condition of Association is found to be satisfactory, certificate to be granted by Comptroller—to be published for sixty days.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That if, upon a careful examination of the facts so reported, and of any other facts which may come to the knowledge of the Comptroller, whether by means of a special commission appointed by him for the purpose of inquiring into the condition of such Association or otherwise, it shall appear that such Association is lawfully entitled to commence the business of banking, the Comptroller shall give to such Association a certificate, under his hand and official seal, that such Association has complied with all the provisions of this Act required to be complied with before being entitled to commence the business of banking under it, and that such Association is authorized to commence said business accordingly; and it shall be the duty of the Association to cause said certificate to be published in some newspaper published in the city or county where the Association is located, for at least sixty days next after the issuing thereof: Provided, That if no newspaper is published in such city or county, the certificate shall be published in a newspaper published nearest thereto.

Form of transfer of bonds by association to the Treasurer. Bonds to be countersigned by the Comptroller.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That all transfers of United States bonds which shall be made by any Association under the provisions of this Act, shall be made to the Treasurer of the United States in trust for the Association, with a memorandum written or printed on each bond, and signed by the cashier or some other officer of the Association making the deposit, a receipt therefor to be given to said Association, or by the Comptroller of the Currency, or by a clerk appointed by him for that purpose, stating that it is held in trust for the Association on whose behalf such transfer is made, and as security for the redemption and payment of any circulating notes that have been or may be delivered to such Association. No assignment or transfer of any such bonds by the Treasurer shall be deemed valid, or of binding force and effect, unless countersigned by the Comptroller of the Currency. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency to keep in his office a book in which shall be entered the name of every Association from whose accounts such transfer of bonds is made by the Treasurer, and the name of the party to whom such transfer is made; and the par value of the bonds so transferred shall be entered therein; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller, immediately upon countersigning and entering the same, to advise by mail the Association from whose account such transfer was made, of the kind and numerical designation of the bonds and the amount thereof so transferred.

Duties of Comptroller upon transfer of bonds.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency to countersign and enter in the book, in the manner aforesaid, every transfer or assignment of any bonds held by the Treasurer presented for his signature; and the Comptroller shall have at all times during office hours access to the books of the Treasurer, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the transfer or assignment presented to him to countersign; and the Treasurer shall have the like access to the book above mentioned, kept by the Comptroller, during office hours, to ascertain the correctness of the entries in the same; and the Comptroller shall also at all times have access to the bonds on deposit with the Treasurer, to ascertain their amount and condition.

Circulating notes to be issued by the Comptroller.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That upon the transfer and delivery of bonds to the Treasurer, as provided in the foregoing section, the Association making the same shall be entitled to receive from the Comptroller of the Currency circulating notes of different denominations, in blank, registered and countersigned as hereinafter provided, equal in amount to ninety per centum of the current market value of the United States bonds so transferred and delivered, but not exceeding ninety per centum of the amount of said bonds at the par value thereof, if bearing interest at a rate not less than five per centum per annum; and at no time shall the total amount of such notes, issued to any such Association, exceed the amount at such time actually paid in of its capital stock.

Limit of circulating notes three hundred millions. Denominations and form of notes.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That the entire amount of notes for circulation to be issued under this Act shall not exceed three hundred millions of dollars. In order to furnish suitable notes for circulation, the Comptroller of the Currency is hereby authorized and required, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to cause plates and dies to be engraved, in the best manner, to guard against counterfeiting and fraudulent alterations, and to have printed therefrom, and numbered, such quantity of circulating notes, in blank, of the denominations of one dollar, two dollars, three dollars, five dollars, ten dollars, twenty dollars, fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, and one thousand dollars, as may be required to supply, under this Act, the Associations entitled to receive the same; which notes shall express upon their face that they are secured by United States bonds, deposited with the Treasurer of the United States by the written or engraved signatures of the Treasurer and Register, and by the imprint of the seal of the Treasury; and shall also express upon their face the promise of the Association receiving the same to pay on demand, attested by the signatures of the president or vice-president and cashier. And the said notes shall bear such devices and such other statements, and shall be in such form, as the Secretary of the Treasury shall, by regulation, direct: Provided, That not more than one-sixth part of the notes furnished to an Association shall be of a less denomination than five dollars, and that after specie payments shall be resumed no Association shall be furnished with notes of a less denomination than five dollars.

Notes to circulate as money, and receivable for taxes, excises, public lands, and all other dues to the United States, except import duties.

SEC. 23. And be it further enacted, That after any such Association shall have caused its promise to pay such notes on demand to be signed by the president or vice-president and cashier thereof, in such manner as to make them obligatory promissory notes, payable on demand, at its place of business, such Association is hereby authorized to issue and circulate the same as money; and the same shall be received at par in all parts of the United States in payment of taxes, excises, public lands, and all other dues to the United States, except for duties on imports; and also for all salaries and other debts and demands owing by the United States to individuals, corporations, and Associations within the United States, except interest on the public debt and in redemption of the national currency. And no such Association shall issue post notes or any other notes to circulate as money than such as are authorized by the foregoing provisions of this Act.

Mutilated Notes to be replaced by New Issues.

SEC. 24. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency to receive worn-out or mutilated circulating notes issued by any such Banking Association; and also, on due proof of the destruction of any such circulating notes, to deliver in place thereof to such association other blank circulating notes to an equal amount. And such worn-out or mutilated notes, after a memorandum shall have been entered in the proper books, in accordance with such regulations as may be established by the Comptroller, as well as all circulating notes which shall have been paid or surrendered to be canceled, shall be burned to ashes in presence of four persons—one to be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, one by the Comptroller of the Currency, one by the Treasurer of the United States, and one by the Association, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. And a certificate of such burning, signed by the parties so appointed, shall be made in the books of the Comptroller, and a duplicate thereof forwarded to the Association whose notes are thus canceled.

Periodical examination of Bonds deposited.

SEC. 25. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every Banking Association, having bonds deposited in the office of the Treasurer of the United States, once or oftener in each fiscal year, and at such time or times during the ordinary business hours as said officer or officers may select, to examine and compare the bonds so pledged, with the books of the Comptroller and the accounts of the Association, and, if found correct, to execute to the said Treasurer a certificate setting forth the different kinds and the amounts thereof, and that the same are in the possession and custody of the Treasurer at the date of such certificate. Such examination may be made by an officer or agent of such Association, duly appointed in writing for that purpose, whose certificate before mentioned shall be of like force and validity as if executed by such president or cashier; and a duplicate signed by the Treasurer shall be retained by the Association.

Bonds transferred to be held exclusively for the Security of the Circulating Notes, but the Interest to be paid to the Association. When depreciated, to be exchanged for other Bonds.

SEC. 26. And be it further enacted, That the bonds transferred to and deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, as hereinbefore provided, by any Banking Association for the security of its circulating notes, shall be held exclusively for that purpose, until such notes shall be redeemed, except as provided in this act; but the Comptroller of the Currency shall give to any such Banking Association powers of attorney to receive and appropriate to its own use the interest on the bonds which it shall have so transferred to the Treasurer; but such powers shall become inoperative whenever such Banking Association shall fail to redeem its circulating notes as aforesaid. Whenever the market or cash value of any bonds deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, as aforesaid, shall be reduced below the amount of the circulation issued for the same, the Comptroller of the Currency is hereby authorized to demand and receive the amount of such depreciation in other United States bonds at cash value or in money, from the Association receiving said bills, to be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, as long as such depreciation continues. And said Comptroller, upon the terms prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, may permit an exchange to be made of any of the bonds deposited with the Treasurer by an Association for other bonds of the United States authorized by this Act to be received as security for circulating notes, if he shall be of opinion that such an exchange can be made without prejudice to the United States, and he may direct the return of any of said bonds to the Banking Association which transferred the same, in sums of not less than one thousand dollars, upon the surrender to him and the cancellation of a proportionate amount of such circulating notes: Provided, That the remaining bonds which shall have been transferred by the Banking Association offering to surrender circulating notes shall be equal to the amount required for the circulating notes not surrendered by such Banking Association, and that the amount of bonds in the hands of the Treasurer shall not be diminished below the amount required to be kept on deposit with him by this act: And provided, That there shall have been no failure by such Association to redeem its circulating notes, and no other violation by such Association of the provisions of this act, and that the market or cash value of the remaining bonds shall not be below the amount required for the circulation issued for the same.

Penalty for issuing or delivering Notes, except as herein provided.

SEC. 27. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any officer acting under the provisions of this act to countersign or deliver to any Association, or to any other company or person, any circulating notes contemplated by this act, except as hereinbefore provided, and in accordance with the true intent and meaning of this act. And any officer who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding double the amount so countersigned and delivered, and imprisonment not less than one year and not exceeding fifteen years, at the discretion of the court in which he shall be tried.

Real Estate, when and how held by Associations.

SEC. 28. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Association to purchase, hold and convey real estate as follows:

First. Such as shall be necessary for its immediate accommodation in the transaction of its business.

Second. Such as shall be mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for debts previously contracted.

Third. Such as shall be conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

Fourth. Such as it shall purchase at sales under judgments, decrees or mortgages held by such Association, or shall purchase to secure debts due to said Association.

Such Association shall not purchase or hold real estate in any other case or for any other purpose than as specified in this section; nor shall it hold the possession of any real estate under mortgage, or hold the title and possession of any real estate purchased to secure any debts due to it for a longer period than five years.

Limitation of Liability of Borrowers.

SEC. 29. And be it further enacted, That the total liabilities to any Association, of any person, or of any company, corporation or firm, for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a company or firm the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall at no time exceed one-tenth part of the amount of the capital stock of such Association actually paid in: Provided, That the discount of bona-fide bills of exchange drawn against actually existing values, and the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person or persons, corporation or firm negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed.

Limit of Rate of Interest. Penalties for Usury.

SEC. 30. And be it further enacted, That every Association may take, receive, reserve and charge on any loan or discount made, or upon any note, bill of exchange, or other evidences of debt, interest at the rate allowed by the laws of the State or Territory where the bank is located, and no more, except that where by the laws of any State a different rate is limited for banks of issue organized under State laws, the rates so limited shall be allowed for Associations organized in any such State under this act. And when no rate is fixed by the laws of the State or Territory, the bank may take, receive, reserve or charge a rate not exceeding seven per centum, and such interest may be taken in advance, reckoning the days for which the note, bill or other evidence of debt has to run. And the knowingly taking, receiving, reserving or charging a rate of interest greater than aforesaid shall be held and adjudged a forfeiture of the entire interest which the note, bill or other evidence of debt carries with it, or which has been agreed to be paid thereon. And in case a greater rate of interest has been paid, the person or persons paying the same, or their legal representatives, may recover back, in any action of debt, twice the amount of the interest thus paid, from the Association taking or receiving the same: Provided, That such action is commenced within two years from the time the usurious transaction occurred. But the purchase, discount or sale of a bona-fide bill of exchange, payable at another place than the place of such purchase, discount or sale, at not more than the current rate of exchange for sight drafts in addition to the interest, shall not be considered as taking or receiving a greater rate of interest.

Reserve of Legal Money prescribed.

SEC. 31. And be it further enacted, That every Association in the cities hereinafter named shall, at all times, have on hand, in lawful money of the United States, an amount equal to at least twenty-five per centum of the aggregate amount of its notes in circulation and of its deposits; and every other Association shall at all times have on hand, in lawful money of the United States, an amount equal to at least fifteen per centum of the aggregate amount of its notes in circulation, and of its deposits. And whenever the lawful money of any Association in any of the cities hereinafter named shall be below the amount of twenty-five per centum of its circulation and deposits, and whenever the lawful money of any other Association shall be below fifteen per centum of its circulation and deposits, such Association shall not increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts otherwise than by discounting or purchasing bills of exchange payable at sight, nor make any dividend of its profits, until the required proportion between the aggregate amount of its outstanding notes of circulation and deposits and its lawful money of the United States shall be restored: Provided, That three-fifths of said fifteen per centum may consist of balances due to an Association available for the redemption of its circulating notes from Associations approved by the Comptroller of the Currency, organized under this act, in the cities of Saint Louis, Louisville, Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, New Orleans, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, New York, Albany, Leavenworth, San Francisco and Washington City: Provided also, That clearing-house certificates, representing specie or lawful money specially deposited for the purpose of any clearing-house Association, shall be deemed to be lawful money in the possession of any Association belonging to such clearing-house holding and owning such certificate, and shall be considered to be a part of the lawful money which such Association is required to have under the foregoing provisions of this section: Provided, That the cities of Charleston and Richmond may be added to the list of cities in the National Associations of which other Associations may keep three-fifths of their lawful money, whenever, in the opinion of the Comptroller of the Currency, the condition of the Southern States will warrant it. And it shall be competent for the Comptroller of the Currency to notify any Association whose lawful money reserve, as aforesaid, shall be below the amount to be kept on hand, as aforesaid, to make good such reserve; and if such Association shall fail for thirty days thereafter so to make good its reserve of lawful money of the United States, the Comptroller may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury, appoint a receiver to wind up the business of such Association, as provided in this Act.

Redemption of Notes at par in New York or other Cities.

SEC. 32. And be it further enacted, That each Association organized in any of the cities named in the foregoing section shall select, subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, an Association in the city of New York at which it will redeem its circulating notes at par. And each of such Associations may keep one half of its lawful money reserve in cash deposits in the city of New York. And each Association not organized within the cities named within the preceding section shall select, subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, an Association in either of the cities named in the preceding section at which it will redeem its circulating notes at par; and the Comptroller shall give public notice of the names of the Associations so selected at which redemptions are to be made by the respective Associations, and of any change that may be made of the Association at which the notes of any Association are redeemed. If any Association shall fail either to make the selection or to redeem its notes aforesaid, the Comptroller of the Currency may, upon receiving satisfactory evidence thereof, appoint a receiver, in the manner provided for in this Act, to wind up its affairs: Provided, That nothing in this section shall relieve any Association from its liability to redeem its circulating notes at its own counter, at par, in lawful money, on demand. And provided further, that every Association formed or existing under the provisions of this Act shall take and receive at par, for any debt or liability to said Association, any and all notes or bills issued by any Association existing under and by virtue of this Act.

Semi-annual Dividends.

SEC. 33. And be it further enacted, That the directors of any Association may, semi-annually, each year, declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the Association as they shall judge expedient; but each Association shall, before the declaration of a dividend, carry one-tenth part of its net profits of the preceding half year to its surplus fund until the same shall amount to twenty per centum of its capital stock.

Quarterly and monthly statements of resources and liabilities required.

SEC. 34. And be it further enacted, That every Association shall make to the Comptroller of the Currency a report, according to the form which may be prescribed by him, verified by the oath or affirmation of the president or cashier of such Association; which report shall exhibit in detail, and under appropriate heads, the resources and liabilities of the Association before the commencement of business on the morning of the first Monday of the months of January, April, July and October of each year, and shall transmit the same to the Comptroller within five days thereafter. And any bank failing to make and transmit such report shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each day after five days that such report is delayed beyond the time.

And the Comptroller shall publish abstracts of said reports in a newspaper to be designated by him for that purpose, in the city of Washington, and the separate report of each Association shall be published in a newspaper in the place where such Association is established, or if there be no newspaper at such place, then in a newspaper published at the nearest place thereto, at the expense of the Association making such report. In addition to the quarterly reports required by this section, every Association shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the Comptroller of the Currency a statement, under the oath of the president or cashier, showing the condition of the Association making such statement, on the morning of the day next preceding the date of such statement, in respect to the following items and particulars, to wit: average amount of loans and discounts, specie and other lawful money belonging to the Association, deposits, and circulation. And Associations in other places than those cities named in the thirty-first section of this act shall also return the amount due them available for the redemption of their circulation.

Loans by an Association on or purchase of its own stock forbidden.

SEC. 35. And be it further enacted, That no Association shall make any loan or discount on the security of the shares of its own capital stock, nor be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and stock so purchased or acquired shall, within six months from the time of its purchase, be sold or disposed of at public or private sale, in default of which a receiver may be appointed to close up the business of the Association, according to the provisions of this Act.

Limitation of indebtedness prescribed.

SEC. 36. And be it further enacted, That no Association shall at any time be indebted, or in any way liable, to an amount exceeding the amount of its capital stock at such time actually paid in and remaining undiminished by losses or otherwise, except on the following accounts, that is to say:

First. On account of its notes of circulation.

Second. On account of moneys deposited with, or collected by, such Association.

Third. On account of bills of exchange or drafts drawn against money actually on deposit to the credit of such Association, or due thereto.

Fourth. On account of liabilities to its stockholders for dividends and reserved profits.

Hypothecation of circulating notes prohibited.

SEC. 37. And be it further enacted, That no Association shall, either directly or indirectly, pledge or hypothecate any of its notes of circulation, for the purpose of procuring money to be paid in on its capital stock, or to be used in its banking operations, or otherwise; nor shall any Association use its circulating notes, or any part thereof, in any manner or form, to create or increase its capital stock.

Withdrawal of capital stock prohibited.

SEC. 38. And be it further enacted, That no Association, or any member thereof, shall, during the time it shall continue its banking operations, withdraw, or permit to be withdrawn, either in form of dividends or otherwise, any portion of its capital. And if losses shall at any time have been sustained by any such Association equal to or exceeding its undivided profits then on hand, no dividend shall be made; and no dividend shall ever be made by any Association while it shall continue its banking operations to an amount greater than its net profits then on hand, deducting therefrom its losses and bad debts. And all debts due to any Association, on which interest is past due and unpaid for a period of six months, unless the same shall be well secured and shall be in process of collection, shall be considered bad debts within the meaning of this act: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prevent the reduction of the capital stock of the Association under the thirteenth section of this Act.

Circulation of depreciated currency forbidden.

SEC. 39. And be it further enacted, That no Association shall at any time pay out on loans or discounts, or in purchasing drafts or bills of exchange, or in payment of deposits, or in any other mode, pay or put in circulation the notes of any bank or Banking Association which shall not, at any such time, be receivable at par, on deposit and in payment of debts by the Association so paying out or circulating such notes; nor shall it knowingly pay out or put in circulation any notes issued by any bank or Banking Association which at the time of such paying out or putting in circulation is not redeeming its circulating notes in lawful money of the United States.

List of shareholders to be kept, and to be open to inspection.

SEC. 40. And be it further enacted, That the president and cashier of every such Association shall cause to be kept at all times a full and correct list of the names and residences of all the shareholders in the Association, and the number of shares held by each, in the office where its business is transacted; and such list shall be subject to the inspection of all the shareholders and creditors of the Association, and the officers authorized to assess taxes under State authority, during business hours of each day in which business may be legally transacted; and a copy of such list, on the first Monday of July in each year, verified by the oath of such president or cashier, shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency.

Plates and dies to remain under direction of Comptroller.—Annual taxes to be paid by each Association.—Returns to be made of amount of circulation.

SEC. 41. And be it further enacted, That the plates and special dies to be procured by the Comptroller of the Currency for the printing of such circulating notes shall remain under his control and direction, and the expenses necessarily incurred in executing the provisions of this Act respecting the procuring of such notes, and all other expenses of the bureau, shall be paid out of the proceeds of the taxes or duties now or hereafter to be assessed on the circulation, and collected from Associations organized under this Act. And in lieu of all existing taxes, every Association shall pay to the Treasurer of the United States, in the months of January and July, a duty of one half of one per centum each half year from and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, upon the average amount of its notes in circulation, and a duty of one quarter of one per centum each half year upon the average amount of its deposits, and a duty of one quarter of one per centum each half year, as aforesaid, on the average amount of its capital stock beyond the amount invested in United States bonds; and in case of default in the payment thereof by any Association, the duties aforesaid may be collected in the manner provided for the collection of United States duties of other corporations, or the Treasurer may reserve the amount of said duties out of the interest, as it may become due, on the bonds deposited with him by such defaulting Association. And it shall be the duty of each Association, within ten days from the first days of January and July of each year, to make a return, under the oath of its president or cashier, to the Treasurer of the United States, in such form as he may prescribe, of the average amount of its notes in circulation, and of the average amount of its deposits, and of the average amount of its capital stock beyond the amount invested in United States bonds, for the six months next preceding said first days of January and July as aforesaid, and in default of such return, and for each default thereof, each defaulting Association shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of two hundred dollars, to be collected either out of the interest as it may become due such Association on the bonds deposited with the Treasurer, or, at his option, in the manner in which penalties are to be collected of other corporations under the laws of the United States; and in case of such default the amount of the duties to be paid by such Association shall be assessed upon the amount of notes delivered to such Association by the Comptroller of the Currency, and upon the highest amount of its deposits and capital stock, to be ascertained in such other manner as the Treasurer may deem best: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent all the shares in any of the said Associations, held by any person or body corporate, from being included in the valuation of the personal property of such person or corporation in the assessment of taxes imposed by or under State authority at the place where such bank is located and not elsewhere, but not at a greater rate than is assessed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of such State: Provided further, That the tax so imposed under the laws of any State upon the shares of any of the Associations authorized by this Act shall not exceed the rate imposed upon the shares in any of the banks organized under authority of the State where such Association is located: Provided also, That nothing in this Act shall exempt the real estate of Associations from either State, county, or municipal taxes to the same extent, according to its value, as other real estate is taxed.

Provision for liquidation by vote of two thirds of stock.

SEC. 42. And be it further enacted, That any Association may go into liquidation and be closed by the vote of its shareholders owning two thirds of its stock. And whenever such vote shall be taken, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to cause notice of this fact to be certified, under the seal of the Association, by its president or cashier, to the Comptroller of the Currency, and the publication thereof to be made for a period of two months in a newspaper published in the city of New York, and also in a newspaper published in a city or town in which the Association is located, and if no newspaper be there published, then in the newspaper published nearest thereto, that said Association is closing up its affairs, and notifying the holders of its notes and other creditors to present the notes and other claims against the Association for payment. And at any time after the expiration of one year from the time of the publication of such notice as aforesaid, the said Association may pay over to the Treasurer of the United States the amount of its outstanding notes in the lawful money of the United States, and take up the bonds which said Association has on deposit with the Treasurer for the security of its circulating notes; which bonds shall be assigned to the bank in the manner specified in the 19th section of this Act, and from that time the outstanding notes of said Association shall be redeemed at the Treasury of the United States, and the said Association and the shareholders thereof shall be discharged from all liabilities therefor.

Circulating notes, when redeemed by the Treasurer, to be burnt quarterly.

SEC. 43. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer, on receiving from an Association lawful money for the payment and redemption of its outstanding notes, as provided for in the preceding section of this Act, shall execute duplicate receipts therefor, one to the Association and the other to the Comptroller of the Currency, stating the amount received by him, and the purpose for which it has been received, which amount shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and placed to the credit of such Association upon redemption account. And it shall be the duty of the Treasurer, whenever he shall redeem any of the notes of said Association, to cause the same to be mutilated, and charged to the redemption account of said Association; and all notes so redeemed by the Treasurer shall, every three months, be certified to and burned in the manner prescribed in the twenty-fourth section of this Act.

State Banks may be converted into National Associations.

SEC. 44. And be it further enacted, That any bank incorporated by special law, or any banking institution organized under a general law of any State, may, by authority of this Act, become a National Association under its provisions, by the name prescribed in its organization certificate; and in such case, the articles of association and the organization certificate required by this Act may be executed by a majority of the directors of the bank or banking institution; and said certificate shall declare that the owners of two thirds of the capital stock have authorized the directors to make such certificate, and to change and convert the said bank or banking institution into a National Association under this Act. And a majority of the directors, after executing said articles of association and organization certificate, shall have power to execute all other papers, and to do whatever may be required to make its organization perfect and complete as a National Association. The shares of any such bank may continue to be for the same amount each as they were before said conversion, and the directors aforesaid may be the directors of the Association until others are elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and any State bank which is a stockholder in any other bank, by authority of State laws, may continue to hold its stock, although either bank, or both, may be organized under and have accepted the provisions of this Act. When the Comptroller shall give to such Association a certificate, under his hand and official seal, that the provisions of this Act have been complied with, and that it is authorized to commence the business of banking under it, the Association shall have the same powers and privileges, and shall be subject to the same duties, responsibilities, and rules, in all respects as are prescribed in this Act for other Associations organized under it, and shall be held and regarded as an Association under this Act: Provided, however, That no such Association shall have a less capital than the amount prescribed for Banking Associations under this Act.

National Banks to be special depositaries of public moneys, and financial agents of the Government.

SEC. 45. And be it further enacted, That all Associations under this Act, when designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be depositaries of public money, except receipts from customs, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary; and they may also be employed as financial agents of the government; and they shall perform all such reasonable duties, as depositaries of public moneys and financial agents of the government, as may be required of them. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall require of the Associations thus designated satisfactory security by the deposit of United States bonds and otherwise, for the safe-keeping and prompt payment of the public money deposited with them, and for the faithful performance of their duties as financial agents of the government: Provided, That every Association which shall be selected and designated as receiver or depository of the public money shall take and receive at par all of the national currency bills, by whatever Association issued, which have been paid in to the government for internal revenue, or for loans or stocks.

Protest of notes on failure to redeem, and duty of Association thereupon.

SEC. 46. And be it further enacted, That if any such Association shall at any time fail to redeem, in the lawful money of the United States, any of its circulating notes, when payment thereof shall be lawfully demanded, during the usual hours of business, at the office of such Association, or at its place of redemption aforesaid, the holder may cause the same to be protested, in one package, by a notary public, unless the president or cashier of the Association whose notes are presented for payment, or the president or cashier of the Association at the place at which they are redeemable, shall offer to waive demand and notice of the protest, and shall, in pursuance of such offer, make, sign, and deliver to the party making such demand an admission in writing, stating the time of the demand, the amount demanded, and the fact of the non-payment thereof; and such notary public, on making such protest, or upon receiving such admission, shall forthwith forward such admission or notice of protest to the Comptroller of the Currency, retaining a copy thereof. And after such default, on examination of the facts by the Comptroller, and notice by him to the Association, it shall not be lawful for the Association suffering the same to pay out any of its notes, discount any notes or bills, or otherwise prosecute the business of banking, except to receive and safely keep money belonging to it, and to deliver special deposits: Provided, That if satisfactory proof be produced to such notary public that the payment of any such notes is restrained by order of any court of competent jurisdiction, such notary public shall not protest the same; and when the holder of such notes shall cause more than one note or package to be protested on the same day, he shall not receive pay for more than one protest.

Appointment of Special Agent on notice of protest.

SEC. 47. And be it further enacted, That on receiving notice that any such Association has failed to redeem any of its circulating notes, as specified in the next preceding section, the Comptroller of the Currency, with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury, may appoint a special agent (of whose appointment immediate notice shall be given to such Association), who shall immediately proceed to ascertain whether such Association has refused to pay its circulating notes, in the lawful money of the United States, when demanded as aforesaid, and report to the Comptroller the fact so ascertained; and if, from such protest or the report so made, the Comptroller shall be satisfied that such Association has refused to pay its circulating notes as aforesaid, and is in default, he shall, within thirty days after he shall have received notice of such failure, declare the United States bonds and securities pledged by such Association forfeited to the United States, and the same shall thereupon be forfeited accordingly. And thereupon the Comptroller shall immediately give notice, in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall, by general rules or otherwise, direct, to the holders of the circulating notes of such Association, to present them for payment at the Treasury of the United States, and the same shall be paid as presented in lawful money of the United States: whereupon said Comptroller may, in his discretion, cancel an amount of bonds pledged by such Association, equal at current market rates, not exceeding par, to the notes paid. And it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Treasury, from time to time, to make such regulations respecting the disposition to be made of such circulating notes after presentation thereof for payment as aforesaid, and respecting the perpetuation of the evidence of the payment thereof, as may seem to him proper; but all such notes, on being paid, shall be canceled. And for any deficiency in the proceeds of the bonds pledged by such Association, when disposed of as hereinafter specified, to reimburse to the United States the amount so expended in paying the circulating notes of such Association, the United States shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the assets of such Association; and such deficiency shall be made good out of such assets in preference to any and all other claims whatsoever, except the necessary costs and expenses of administering the same.

Sale at auction of bonds of suspended banks.

SEC. 48. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Comptroller shall become satisfied, as in the last preceding section specified, that any Association has refused to pay its circulating notes as therein mentioned, he may, instead of canceling the United States bonds pledged by such Association, as provided in the next preceding section, cause so much of them as may be necessary to redeem the outstanding circulating notes of such Association to be sold at public auction in the city of New York, after giving thirty days' notice of such sale to such Association.

Such sale may, in the discretion of the Comptroller be at private sale—but in that case for not less than par or the market value.

SEC. 49. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller of the Currency may, if he shall be of opinion that the interests of the United States will be best promoted thereby, sell at private sale any of the bonds pledged by such Association, and receive therefor either money or the circulating notes of such failing Association: Provided, That no such bonds shall be sold by private sale for less than par, nor less than the market value thereof at the time of sale: And provided, further, That no sales of any such bonds, either public or private, shall be complete until the transfer thereof shall have been made with the formalities prescribed in this Act.

Receiver of Suspended Associations, and his Duties.

SEC. 50. And be it further enacted, That on becoming satisfied, as specified in this Act, that any Association has refused to pay its circulating notes as therein mentioned, and is in default, the Comptroller of the Currency may forthwith appoint a receiver, and require of him such bond and security as he shall deem proper, who, under the direction of the Comptroller, shall take possession of the books, records and assets of every description of such Association; collect all debts, dues and claims belonging to such Association, and, upon the order of a court of record of competent jurisdiction, may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts, and, on a like order, sell all the real and personal property of such Association, on such terms as the court shall direct; and may, if necessary to pay the debts of such Association, enforce the individual liability of the stockholders provided for by the twelfth section of this act; and such receiver shall pay over all money so made to the Treasurer of the United States, subject to the order of the Comptroller of the Currency, and also make report to the Comptroller of the Currency of all his acts and proceedings. The Comptroller shall thereupon cause notice to be given, by advertisement in such newspapers as he may direct, for three consecutive months, calling on all persons who may have claims against such Association to present the same, and to make legal proof thereof. And from time to time the Comptroller, after full provision shall have been first made for refunding to the United States any such deficiency in redeeming the notes of such Association as is mentioned in this Act, shall make a ratable dividend of the money so paid over to him by such receiver on all such claims as may have been proved to his satisfaction or adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction; and from time to time, as the proceeds of the assets of such Association shall be paid over to him, he shall make further dividends, as aforesaid, on all claims previously proved or adjudicated; and the remainder of such proceeds, if any, shall be paid over to the shareholders of such Association, or their legal representatives, in proportion to the stock by them respectively held: Provided, however, That if such Association, against which proceedings have been so instituted, on account of any alleged refusal to redeem its circulating notes as aforesaid, shall deny having failed to do so, such Association may, at any time within ten days after such Association shall have been notified of the appointment of an agent, as provided in this act, apply to the nearest circuit or district or territorial court of the United States, to enjoin further proceedings in the premises; and such court, after citing the Comptroller of the Currency to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and after the decision of the court or finding of a jury that such Association has not refused to redeem its circulating notes, when legally presented, in the lawful money of the United States, shall make an order enjoining the Comptroller and any receiver acting under his direction, from all further proceedings on account of such alleged refusal.

Fees for Protests, Examinations and Receiverships; by whom paid.

SEC. 51. And be it further enacted, That all fees for protesting the notes issued by any such Banking Association shall be paid by the person procuring the protest to be made, and such Banking Association shall be liable therefor; but no part of the bonds pledged by such Banking Association, as aforesaid, shall be applied to the payment of such fees. And all expenses of any preliminary or other examinations into the condition of any Association shall be paid by such Association; and all expenses of any receivership shall be paid out of the assets of such Association before distribution of the proceeds thereof.

Transfer of Assets by an Association after Insolvency, in prejudice of rights of Creditors, void.

SEC. 52. And be it further enacted, That all transfer of the notes, bonds, bills of exchange, and other evidences of debt owing to any Association, or of deposits to its credit; all assignments of mortgages, sureties on real estate, or of judgments or decrees in its favor; all deposits of money, bullion or other valuable thing for its use, or for the use of any of its shareholders or creditors; and all payments of money to either, made after the commission of an act of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, with a view to prevent the application of its assets in the manner prescribed by this act, or with a view to the preference of one creditor to another, except in payment of its circulating notes, shall be utterly null and void.

On Malfeasance of Officers or Directors, franchises of Association forfeited.

SEC. 53. And be it further enacted, That if the directors of any Association shall knowingly violate, or knowingly permit any of the officers, agents or servants of the Association to violate any of the provisions of this Act, all the rights, privileges and franchises of the Association derived from this Act shall be thereby forfeited. Such violation shall, however, be determined and adjudged by a proper circuit, district or territorial court of the United States, in a suit brought for that purpose by the Comptroller of the Currency, in his own name, before the Association shall be declared dissolved. And in cases of such violation, every director who participated in or assented to the same shall be held liable in his personal and individual capacity for all damages which the Association, its shareholders or any other person shall have sustained in consequence of such violation.

Appointment of Special Agent to examine affairs of Association—his powers.

SEC. 54. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approbation of the Secretary of the Treasury, as often as shall be deemed necessary or proper, shall appoint a suitable person or persons to make an examination of the affairs of every Banking Association, which person shall not be a director or other officer in any Association whose affairs he shall be appointed to examine, and who shall have power to make a thorough examination into all the affairs of the Association, and, in doing so, to examine any of the officers and agents thereof on oath; and shall make a full and detailed report of the condition of the Association to the Comptroller. And the Association shall not be subject to any other visitorial powers than such as are authorized by this Act, except such as are vested in the several courts of law and chancery. And every person appointed to make such examination shall receive for his services at the rate of five dollars for each day by him employed in such examination, and two dollars for every twenty-five miles he shall necessarily travel in the performance of his duty, which shall be paid by the Association by him examined.

Penalty for embezzlement or misdemeanor of Officers.

SEC. 55. And be it further enacted, That every president, director, cashier, teller, clerk, or agent of any Association, who shall embezzle, abstract, or willfully misapply any of the moneys, funds, or credits of the Association, or shall, without authority from the directors, issue or put in circulation any of the notes of the Association, or shall, without such authority, issue or put forth any certificate of deposit, draw any order or bill of exchange, make any acceptance, assign any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment or decree, or shall make any false entry in any book, report, or statement of the Association, with intent, in either case, to injure or defraud the Association or any other company, body politic or corporate, or any individual person, or to deceive any officer of the Association, or any agent appointed to examine the affairs of any such Association, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not less than five nor more than ten years.

Suits and proceedings under this Act.

SEC. 56. And be it further enacted, That all suits and proceedings arising out of the provisions of this Act, in which the United States or its officers or agents shall be parties, shall be conducted by the district attorneys of the several districts, under the direction and supervision of the Solicitor of the Treasury.

Suits against any Association may be brought in any Court. Proceedings to enjoin Comptroller, to be brought in U. S. Court.

SEC. 57. And be it further enacted, That suits, actions and proceedings against any Association under this Act may be had in any circuit, district, or territorial court of the United States held within the district in which such Association may be established; or in any State, county, or municipal court in the county or city in which said Association is located, having jurisdiction in similar cases: Provided, however, That all proceedings to enjoin the Comptroller under this Act shall be had in a circuit, district, or territorial court of the United States, held in the district in which the Association is located.

Penalty for mutilation of circulating notes.

SEC. 58. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall mutilate, cut, deface, disfigure, or perforate with holes, or shall unite or cement together, or do any other thing to any bank bill, draft, note, or other evidence of debt, issued by any such Association, or shall cause or procure the same to be done, with intent to render such bank bill, draft, note, or evidence of debt unfit to be reissued by said Association, shall, upon conviction, forfeit fifty dollars to the Association who shall be injured thereby, to be recovered by action in any court having jurisdiction.

Penalty for forging circulating notes.

SEC. 59. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be made, forged, or counterfeited, or willingly aid or assist in falsely making, forging, or counterfeiting, any note in imitation of, or purporting to be in imitation of, the circulating notes issued under the provisions of this Act, or shall pass, utter, or publish, or attempt to pass, utter, or publish, any false, forged, or counterfeited note, purporting to be issued by any Association doing a banking business under the provisions of this Act, knowing the same to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or shall falsely alter, or cause or procure to be falsely altered, or willingly aid or assist in falsely altering, any such circulating notes, issued as aforesaid, or shall pass, utter or publish, or attempt to pass, utter or publish, as true, any falsely altered or spurious circulating note issued, or purporting to have been issued, as aforesaid, knowing the same to be falsely altered or spurious, every such person shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of felony, and being thereof convicted by due course of law shall be sentenced to be imprisoned and kept at hard labor for a period of not less than five years nor more than fifteen years, and fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Penalty for making plates for forging circulating notes, or having blank notes in possession.

SEC. 60. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall make or engrave, or cause or procure to be made or engraved, or shall have in his custody or possession any plate, die, or block after the similitude of any plate, die, or block from which any circulating notes issued as aforesaid shall have been prepared or printed, with intent to use such plate, die, or block, or cause or suffer the same to be used, in forging or counterfeiting any of the notes issued as aforesaid, or shall have in his custody or possession any blank note or notes engraved and printed after the similitude of any notes issued as aforesaid, with intent to use such blanks, or cause or suffer the same to be used, in forging or counterfeiting any of the notes issued as aforesaid, or shall have in his custody or possession any paper adapted to the making of such notes, and similar to the paper upon which any such notes shall have been issued, with intent to use such paper, or cause or suffer the same to be used, in forging or counterfeiting any of the notes issued as aforesaid, every such person, being thereof convicted by due course of law, shall be sentenced to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor for a term not less than five or more than fifteen years, and fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Annual report of Comptroller required; what it shall contain.

SEC. 61. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency to report annually to Congress at the commencement of its session—

First. A summary of the state and condition of every Association from whom reports have been received the preceding year, at the several dates to which such reports refer, with an abstract of the whole amount of banking capital returned by them, of the whole amount of their debts and liabilities, the amount of circulating notes outstanding, and the total amount of means and resources, specifying the amount of lawful money held by them at the times of their several returns, and such other information in relation to said Associations as, in his judgment, may be useful.

Second. A statement of the Associations whose business has been closed during the year, with the amount of their circulation redeemed and the amount outstanding.

Third. Any amendment to the laws relative to banking by which the system may be improved, and the security of the holders of its notes and other creditors may be increased.

Fourth. The names and compensation of the clerks employed by him, and the whole amount of the expenses of the banking department during the year. And such report shall be made by or before the first day of December in each year, and the usual number of copies, for the use of the Senate and House, and one thousand copies for the use of the department, shall be printed by the public printer and in readiness for distribution at the first meeting of Congress.

Act of 1863 repealed.

SEC. 62. And be it further enacted, That the Act entitled "An Act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved February twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, is hereby repealed: Provided, That such repeal shall not affect any appointments made, acts done, or proceedings had, or the organization, acts, or proceedings of any Association organized or in the process of organization under the Act aforesaid: And provided, also, That all such Associations so organized or in process of organization shall enjoy all the rights and privileges granted, and be subject to all the duties, liabilities, and restrictions imposed by this Act, and with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, in lieu of the name specified in their respective organization certificates, may take any other name preferred by them and duly certified to the Comptroller, without prejudice to any right acquired under this Act, or under the Act hereby repealed; but no such change shall be made after six months from the passage of this Act: Provided, also, That the circulation issued or to be issued by such Association shall be considered as a part of the circulation provided for in this Act.

Executors, Trustees, &c., holding stock, not personally liable.

SEC. 63. And be it further enacted, That persons holding stock, as executors, administrators, guardians, and trustees, shall not be personally subject to any liabilities as stockholders; but the estates and funds in their hands shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator, intestate, ward, or person interested in said trust funds would be if they were respectively living and competent to act and hold the stock in their own name.

Rights of Congress reserved.

SEC. 64. And be it further enacted, That Congress may at any time amend, alter or repeal this Act.

On the thirtieth day of June, 1864, Congress passed an act entitled "An Act to provide Internal Revenue to support the Government, to pay Interest on the Public Debt, and for other purposes" (Chap. clxxiii. U. S. Statutes at Large (1863-1864), page 77), from which the following is an extract :

SEC. 110. And be it further enacted, That there shall be levied, collected and paid a duty of one twenty-fourth of one per centum each month upon the average amount of the deposits of money, subject to payment by check or draft, or represented by certificates of deposit or otherwise, whether payable on demand or at some future day, with any person, bank, association, company or corporation engaged in the business of banking; and a duty of one twenty-fourth of one per centum each month, as aforesaid, upon the average amount of the capital of any bank, association, company or corporation, or person engaged in the business of banking, beyond the amount invested in United States bonds; and a duty of one-twelfth of one per centum each month upon the average amount of circulation issued by any bank, association, corporation, company or person, including as circulation all certified checks and all notes and other obligations calculated or intended to circulate or to be used as money, but not including that in the vault of the bank, or redeemed and on deposit for said bank; and an additional duty of one-sixth of one per centum each month upon the average amount of such circulation, issued as aforesaid, beyond the amount of ninety per centum of the capital of any such bank, association, corporation, company or person, and upon any amount of such circulation beyond the average amount of the circulation that had been issued as aforesaid by any such bank, association, corporation, company or person, for the six months preceding the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-four. And on the first Monday of August next, and of each month thereafter, a true and accurate return of the amount of circulation, of deposit, and of capital, as aforesaid, for the previous month, shall be made and rendered in duplicate by each of such banks, associations, corporations, companies or persons to the assessor of the district in which any such bank, association, corporation or company may be located, or in which such person may reside, with a declaration annexed thereto, and the oath or affirmation of such person, or of the president or cashier of such bank, association, corporation or company, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that the same contains a true and faithful statement of the amount of circulation, deposits and capital, as aforesaid, subject to duty as aforesaid, and shall transmit the duplicate of said return to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and within twenty days thereafter shall pay to the said Commissioner of Internal Revenue the duties hereinbefore prescribed upon the said amount of circulation, of deposits and of capital, as aforesaid; and for any refusal or neglect to make or to render such return and payment, as aforesaid, any such bank, association, corporation, company or person so in default shall be subject to and pay a penalty of two hundred dollars, besides the additional penalty and forfeitures in other cases provided in this act; and the amount of circulation, deposit and capital, as aforesaid, in default of the proper return, shall be estimated by the assessor or assistant assessor of the district, as aforesaid, upon the best information he can obtain; and every such penalty, together with the duties as aforesaid, may be recovered for the use of the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction. And in the case of banks with branches the duty herein provided for shall be imposed upon the circulation of each branch, severally, and the amount of capital of each branch shall be considered to be the amount allotted to such branch; and so much of an act entitled "An act to provide ways and means for the support of the government," approved March three, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, as imposes any tax on banks, their circulation, capital or deposits, other than is herein provided, is hereby repealed: Provided, That this section shall not apply to associations which are taxed under and by virtue of the act "to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof;" nor to any savings banks having no capital stock, and whose business is confined to receiving deposits, and loaning the same on interest for the benefit of the depositors only, and which do no other business of banking: And provided, further, That any bank ceasing to issue notes for circulation, and which shall deposit in the Treasury of the United States, in lawful money, the amount of its outstanding circulation, to be redeemed at par, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, shall be exempt from any tax upon such circulation.
